The halls filled with unfamiliar faces . . . the room you can not find . . . the teacher you don't understand . . . the homework you feel unable to accomplish . . . the utter fear of going to the office for the first time . . . hope of being accepted in a club . . . routines not yet formed . . . the

the uncertainty of big groups . . . the largeness of the school . . . frustration and disappointment of not achieving a certain goal . . . all of these are feelings which are a part of you as you come to V.H.S., these are your first impressions.

Lasting Impressions . . .

The unity of the school in which you are a definite part . . . important goals accomplished . . . the participation in clubs and activities . . . supporting faithful teams . . . the work which you are proud of . . . the familiar and well trod upon halls . . . the tingle of pride when you hear the Alma Mater . . . the enthusiastic pep rallies . . . the lasting friendships formed and cherished . . . the performance of talent and skill for your school . . . the feeling of belonging to V.H.S. . . . these will be the impressions of your high school years which will last forever.

Mr. Robert Pearson

A Man Of Many Interests

At one time he was principal of Thomas Jefferson School. For thirty-four years he has taught in the school system. He taught General Math and Shop, and is presently teaching Mechanical Drawing I. His classes are an enjoyable time of learning because of his keen interest in his students. Sponsoring the Interact Club is one of his many out of the classroom activities. You often see him at skirmishes and taking up tickets at football games. To a man of many interests, we dedicate this 1968 "Virginian" to Mr. Robert Pearson.

Faculty Has Ten New Members

The Teaching staff of Virginia High school consists of fifty-six members holding degrees from thirty-two different colleges and universities. Of these teachers twenty-one have obtained Masters Degrees while one has his Doctorate. As a whole the teaching staff has contributed seven hundred and thirty-five years to the education of young people.

With the addition of courses in welding, economics and special education, the curriculum this year offers seventy-two units.

Virginia High is accredited by the State Department of Education and by the Southern Association of Schools and Colleges. There are one thousand and forty-three pupils enrolled.

Twirp Week

One a year the tables turn at V.H.S. and the girls get a chance to entertain their favorite beaus. During "Twirp Week" girls are responsible for performing all the niceties they expect from the boys every other week in the year. Activities this year included ball games, church, pizza dinners, and movies.

"I hope the guys don't see me."

A twirp isn't a twirp until it's personally decorated.

"Only one time a year and we get hamburgers!"

Seniors Present "I Remember Mama"

Mrs. Post, play director, goes over last minute details with Connie King before dress rehearsal.

Under the direction of Mrs. Marianne Post, the play "I Remember Mama" was presented by the Senior Class at the Virginia Junior High auditorium. The play was open to the public and was a delightful experience for the participants and for those who attended.

Mama, Jessica Woody, listens to Uncle Chris', Steve Taucher, last words.

Kneeling: Burdette Snider. Seated: Woody, Church, Thomas, King. Standing: Taucher, Helton, Randolph, Page, Browning, Sutherland, Silcox, Cross, Wheeler.

Plays Presented By Drama Students

This year the Drama Club has provided the student body with some very good play entertainment. Much hard work went into the "behind the scene" preparation for these plays and many hours were devoted to practice. These plays, "So's Your Old Man" and "Mugsy's Merry Christmas", were presented in the gym and enjoyed by everyone.

Participants are frozen in position before the play begins.

V-T Week

The Vikings didn't feel at home this night.

Snookie secures the city trophy for the Bearcat victors.

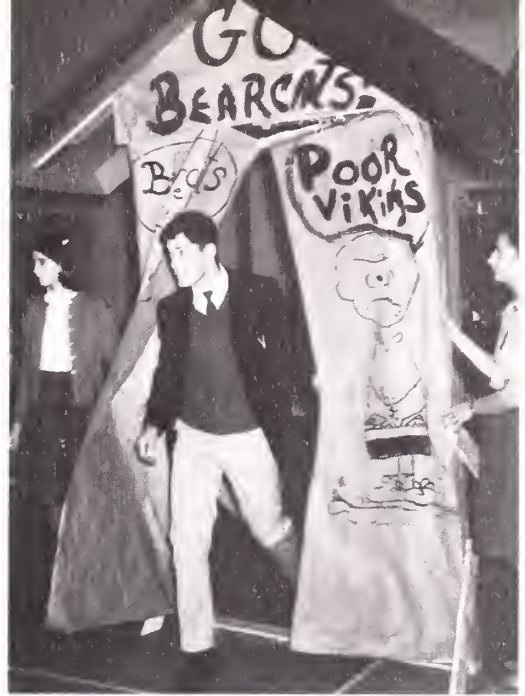

Winning isn't everything, but it's way ahead of whatever comes in second.

V-T Week—a week of enthusiasm, school spirit, and a Friday night victory of 3-0. It began with a weekend spent decorating the school and ended with a City Trophy. The theme “Happiness is the City Trophy” was carried out with Charlie Browns, Lucy’s Lane and a Pigpen made for the Vikings. There was a Bonfire, Snake Dance, and Car Parade. To top off the week an hour long pep rally was held. The Alpha Foundation presented a skit featuring Snoopy dogs. But the most exciting time of all was when the game was over, the score 3-0, and V.H.S. took home the City Trophy.

"I'll never understand how girls and football could take precedence over Beethoven."

Alex Todt breaks out of the doghouse to begin the V-T pep rally.

Bearcats ready to burn up the Vikings.

Coach Watford "humbly" accepts the city trophy from THS Coach Crop.

Senior Rings

The crowning point in the senior year, next to graduation, of course, is the day the class rings arrive. From that day on seniors are endowed with the pride and privilege of being the "top brass" of the school.

Each class ring displays the individuality of its owner while at the same time it binds together the Class of 1968 as a whole.

Benny Bailey outreaches Coach Marion for the tip.

Student—Faculty Game

The annual Student-Faculty basketball game presented by the Latin Club miraculously ended in a 39-33 victory for the somewhat bedraggled faculty members. However, the students intend to make their comeback next year.

Referee Kovacs instructs Captains Donnelly and Marion before start of the game.

Miss Green, Mrs. Hicks, and Mrs. McChesney cheer their men on to victory.

Awards

Vickie Wheeler shows Mrs. Coleman how she won the Betty Crocker Homemaker Award.

All regional chorus: Jessee, Smith, Booher, Lyttle, Shortt, Branson, Rutter, Mays.

Each year at Virginia High many honors and awards are presented to deserving students. Several of these are awarded at the Underclassmen Awards Assembly and at Class Night in May. Included here are the most outstanding awards presented earlier in the year. These people are to be congratulated for their superlative achievements.

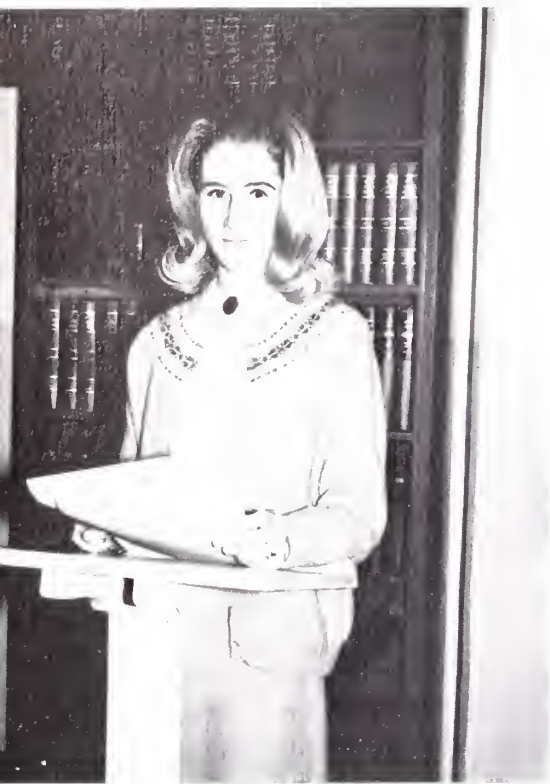

Julie Powell was the recipient of the D.A.R. Essay Award.

The Bauche and Lomb Science Award was presented to Terry Mays.

David Church, outstanding band member, and Suzanne Jessee, outstanding chorus member, were selected to take part in a European tour.

Suzanne Jessee was the deserving winner of the Voice of Democracy contest.

Alan Gilly and Bill Thomas received nominations for the two Most Outstanding Teenagers in America.

Members of the All-district and All-regional basketball teams and honorable mentions are: Harmon, Slagle, Baker, Musick, Rutter, Todt, Bailey, Knox, Stewart.

Homecoming Queen Robin Arnold escorted by Larry Clark.

Homecoming Queen

This year marked the beginning of a new tradition at Virginia High—the crowning of a Homecoming Queen. Candidates were entered by each of the clubs and the queen was selected by the student body.

Third runner-up was Judy Large, Terry

Mays was second runner-up, a tie presented Diane Miller and Patsy Silcox as first runners-up, and Miss Robin Arnold was chosen as Virginia High's first Homecoming Queen.

Tab Baxley, Master of Ceremonies, talks with Mrs. McNutt, General Chairman.

Amazing America

"Amazing America" was the theme of this year's Spring Festival. The theme was a carry over from President Johnson's plea to Americans to stay in this hemisphere and see America first. Tab Baxley was this year's Master of Ceremonies. Skits carried out the theme by giving us a glance at Broadway, Chicago, Hawaii, and others. The choral department and the Big Orange Band provided the music for the evening. The highlight of the festivities was the crowning of Miss Sherry Winter and Mr. Lannie Rutter as reigning King and Queen of Virginia High School.

Organizations

Virginian Staff

The Virginian staff is a group of students responsible for producing the year-book. Through the year they compile all the information on every aspect of V.H.S. life along with pictures, copy, and layouts. Through meeting their deadlines they have the annual ready to present to the student body in May.

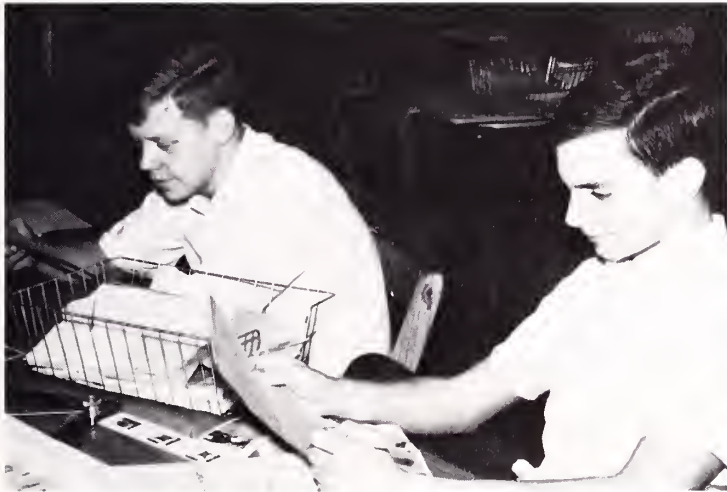

Editor Connie King and business manager Anita Criswell ponder over details of the Virginian.

Little Virginian Staff

Co-editors Betty Cooper and Peggy Sutherland add their finishing touches to the "Little Virginian".

Advertising manager Mark Hoback and co-business managers Diane Miller and Gary Salyers consult with each other.

The "Little Virginian" staff is responsible for our school paper. They gather news within the school and along with features and pictures produce a four page paper distributed several times during the year. They cover all school activities, sports, honors, and student contributions.

Co-sponsors Mrs. Lewis and Miss Whitley smile approval at the finished product.

Future Business Leaders Of America

The purpose of the Future Business Leaders of America is to develop business leadership and to create more interest and understanding in the choice of a business occupation. Their activities this year include participating in the Tom Wat Sales rally, decorating the teachers lounge for Christmas, and buying articles for teachers lounge during American Education Week.

Three members work on plans for the remaining year.

Members prepare Christmas decorations for the cafeteria.

The Future Teachers of America Club was organized for those who are interested in the profession of teaching.

This year the F.T.A. sponsored a "Mr. Pretty Legs Contest", sold V-T pennants, and gave a Christmas party. Funds for these activities were made through rummage and bake sales.

Rachel Tate presents the award for "Mr. Pretty Legs" to Coach Towns.

Concert Choir

THE BEST

Girls' Ensemble

This year our school is privileged to have four very active choral groups under the direction of Miss Nancy Lindamood. The Girls' and Boys' Glee Club, Mixed Chorus, and the Concert Choir make up our choral program. In addition to these groups, Miss Lindamood has organized the Boys' Quartet and the Girls' Ensemble. One of the musical highlights during the year was their participation in the Christmas Program at Virginia High.

Cheerleaders Revive VHS Spirit

Cheerleaders take a rest during V-T pep rally.

Cheerleaders are perhaps the center of high school athletics. Ours are pretty, mini-skirted girls, never lacking in school spirit. Cheerleaders spend endless hours practicing, sponsoring student activities, and performing in pep rallies. They're also responsible for V-T Week and Twirp Week. To these girls we say thanks, and congratulations for a job well done.

Frozen in suspense . . .

Among their other duties, the cheerleaders also sell programs at basketball games.

Neither rain, nor sleet, nor hail, nor broken leg . . .

Viking's Mauney runs into a wall of Bearcats.

The 1967 Bearcat football squad under Head Coach Jerry Watford displayed more desire and ability than has been apparent at V.H.S. for several years. The team, led by captains Carter Baker and Benny Bailey, wound up with a 7-3 record, tied for second place in the Southwest District, and won the City Championship. Not a bad showing for a team that was supposed to win not more than two games.

Bill Cullen Chooses Winner

Each year the annual staff sponsors the traditional "Miss Virginian" contest. Any senior girl wishing to enter the contest may submit her senior photograph to the staff. Only the most photogenic girls are chosen. From a group of 40 pictures "Miss Virginian" and the three runners-up were chosen.

This year's judge was the NBC television and radio personality, Bill Cullen. He was well known as a panelist on "I've Got a Secret" and is presently the star of "Eye Guess."

Officers: Secretary-Treasurer Criswell, Vice President Miller, S.C.A. Representative Carter, President Gilly, S.C.A. Representative Erwin.

Class Of 1968

Seniors! What a wonderful thought. We have worked very hard to achieve this position. Remember your first day at Virginia High. We were a bit excited . . . confused . . . curious . . . even a little scared. Trying to find our classes was really hard . . . and we didn't get much help from the upperclassmen. At Thanksgiving we aided an unfortunate family with a Thanksgiving Basket. That year the Honor Council was revitalized. Our Class was represented by Alan Gilly. Our Class was sponsored by Mr. Edwards and our president was Sam Oakley. We returned in the fall as Sophomores. Our sponsor was Mr. Cummins and Sam Oakley was again elected president. Our Sophomore year was quite different from the preceding year. Various clubs invited our participation which made it easier to become acquainted with upperclassmen and mold stronger friendships. Perhaps our Junior year was the busiest. We began the year with the magazine sale. We were invited to attend the College Day program which was very helpful. Remember the long hours spent on decorations for the Junior-Senior Prom? It took a lot of time and effort but it looked beautiful. That year our class was directed by sponsor Mr. Edwards and president Schuy Ferrell. Our Senior year . . . We will treasure that year forever. That first day was easy. We were experienced, we knew our way around. And the days of waiting for Class Rings which finally came, we felt so proud. Our Class also presented the play I Remember Mama. The Junior-Senior Prom was wonderful and left us with many remembrances. The Senior Banquet, Class Night, and Graduation completed four years of high school which shall never be shattered from our memory.

Finale

When you have reached the end of your high school years, there are many things you will remember—the dreaded exams which seemed impossible . . . the grades you worked so hard to earn . . . the teachers who instructed and taught you . . . the bake sales you trudged to in the early hours of a Saturday morning . . . the entire day spent decorating the school for V.T. Week . . . and most important . . . the knowledge acquired and the friendships made during those very important years . . . the years of lasting impressions.

Mrs. Post,

It is hard to believe that this year is over. I didn't think we would survive all the play. I have enjoyed working with you this year

Love
Cris Andersen

Mrs. Post,

We have really missed you. Take care of your self.

I'll never forget the senior play. Best of luck to the best teacher. Love,

Lida Rudell

Mrs. Post

It was just my luck to have my favorite teacher get sick this last semester. Will count even - um all.

I have said it before & I will say it again that, you are the only dedicated teacher ever to reach U.I.S. Please get well soon and rock it to us next year.

(much love)

Steve Tawaka

To whom it may concern
(Mrs. Maimie Post)
Don't forget the good old Drama Club. We need some one with your imagination and downright play is as much fun as the next Christmas
But please let me do my own make up.
to know your the last year paint me next time.
please do go that "last" on me next time.
I friend of my The Thief, convict,
My ugly

Mrs. Post,

I have really enjoyed being in your speech class this year. You have taught me a lot this year. Best of luck to your friend and wonderful, ect., mine
David Harmon

Mrs. Post

Thanks for all the help you've given me this year. I needed it most now. And thanks again for the recommendation to King. It sure solved a lot of my problems. Also thanks for allowing me to eat dinner with you, and all those great talks we've had. Speech sure missed you this last half, but you'll be all rested up for next year.

Thanks again.

HARE KRISHNA!

love,

Landon Cross

Mrs Post,

May '68

I truly, honestly loved speech with you this year. I think you've taught me more than any teacher I've ever had. You influenced my decision to major in Speech and Drama. I'll come and see you soon, I hope. Love, Sandy

David,
ITS BEEN GREAT GETTING TO KNOW
YOU THIS YEAR. HOPE YOU HAVE THE BEST OF LUCK IN THE FUTURE (ESP... WITH THE GALS)
LOVE YOU ALWAYS!

SEE YA NEXT YEAR!

LOVE YA!

David, I didn't get in any of your classes this year.
I was lucky! But I have fun this summer!
really!
Love,
Carolyn

David:

It has been great fun with you this year!
and I hope to see you next year. Good luck and best wishes to a great guy. and may you get all out of life that you want!

it really has been fun this year and its hard to believe is almost over but speech has been great and I really feel it has helped me since I started your class my have have gotten thicker, I no longer have that run down feeling, and even my cont.

Marianne,
 I'm glad to hear that you're coming back. I miss the arguments in the lounge.
 I haven't visited you,
 but I'm sure you've had plenty of company. Looking forward to seeing you.

Not home yet, have not yet returned from the States.
 Miss Post, please write to me when you are home.
 Love, B.H.

Miss Post,

I've missed seeing you around the hall these past months. Sorry and get well and I'll see you next year. I would right now but David is trying to take the annual away from me.

Marianne,

Fidelis Campbell

I certainly have missed you during my planning period. I've been left without any good conversation and no "advice". Everyone is looking forward to your coming back next year. Take care, Annette

David,

Stay as cute and sweet as you are now and you'll go far in life!
Good luck and remember all the fun in Biology!
Friend
always - Cheryl

David,
you're a nice guy and I've enjoyed having Biology with you this year. Be good

Best of luck to a fine happy Mrs. Bond

Faith,

Best of luck in the future and all the wishes in the world, we are at the end of another year, me in summer school. anyway Best always!

Your Friend,
Yreg

this Post,

you will never know how much we have missed you. you are a great teacher & person. I have enjoyed being in your class.

I hope to see you this summer & next year - I'll be at U.S. -
God bless you always. Love,
Sara

Dear Mrs. Bond,
I hope to see you this summer & next year - I'll
be at U.S. -
God bless you always. Love,
Sara

MRS. POST,
It has n't been the same here since you left. I hope that you are getting better and will be back next year. I we've had a lot of fun in speech class and in the Drama Club. It will be most rewarding serving with you next year. TO the year's winner of the Emmy, Oscar, and the Global.
God Bless you Always,
Penny Hernandez

Mrs. Post,

Everyone has missed you this last half. I am glad I decided to take speech, I've learned so much!! I'm sure that the people planning to take speech next year are looking forward to having you as a teacher I'll come by and see ya this summer and next year, since I'll be at Uel

Love,

Good luck David - You're the most,
Gida

Mrs. Post,
I've really enjoyed coming over your house and talking to you. I hope that you will be well enough to teach next year and I am lucky enough to get you for English.
Dicky Thurston

To Super Post,
It's been great knowing you this year and I hope to see you next year.

David,

You are a real sweet boy with a great personality. I have enjoyed being in your homeroom, &
Biology class.

Best of luck always

David,

David,
You are so sweet please don't ever change. We have had fun talking in homeroom, haven't we?
Best wishes,
Susan P.

I have you as one of my good friends and I hope that you have good luck in every thing that you try to accomplish
